Guest Speakers:

Jim Guth
Retired Navy Captain and Former
Polk County GOP Chairman

Jim Guth will present: The great China threat to the United States and the North and South American continent.

Solivita Resident Jim Guth served in the U.S. Navy for 26 years, where he commanded two nuclear submarines and oversaw hundreds of people. He also served as a program director for a $1 billion classified program in the Navy.

After his military service, he worked at Boeing and as a consultant before becoming involved in politics. More recently, he has been a Member of the Board of Directors for Advent Health West Florida, and a Member of the Board of Trustees for Heart of Florida Hospital.

He served as the Polk County GOP chairman from 2013 and recently retired from that position. He has run for Polk County Commission. He also served as a district-level delegate to the 2016 Republican National Convention from Florida.

Omar Arroyo

District 4 Polk County Commissioner Candidate

Omar Arroyo is a prominent figure in Haines City, Florida, known for his significant contributions to the city's political landscape. He is the first Hispanic commissioner in Haines City, a position he first attained in 2022. In 2023, he served as the first vice mayor, and in 2024, he became the city's first Hispanic mayor. He is also recognized as the first Mexican mayor in Florida.

Beyond his political roles, Arroyo is actively involved in community initiatives and organizations. He serves as the chairman of the HCA Board of Poinciana Hospital and is an active board member of the United Way. He participates in several Florida organizations, including the Florida League of Mayors and Florida League of Cities, and volunteers with various nonprofits around Polk County. Arroyo supports youth in sports and the arts and is a certified contractor in Florida.
